Teach Europe 2005 – April 30, 2005

Seminar conducted by Michel Candelier, director of the department of French as a Foreign Language at the Université du Maine (Le Mans, France). Professor Candelier has also been coordinating various European research-innovation projects concerning Awakening to Languages (also known as “Language Awareness” in the UK)

8:00AM – 4:00PM

MULTILINGUALISM IN THE TEACHING OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

*School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), Johns Hopkins University
Rome Auditorium, 1619 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC*

At a time when Europe is enlarging, it is key to be well informed about multilingualism in the teaching of a foreign language. To do so, the Education Office of the French Embassy and the Goethe-Institut are continuing the work undertaken in 2002 and 2004. This year we are pleased to welcome as new partners the Italian Cultural Institute and the Education and Science Office of the Spanish Embassy. “Teach Europe” is a one-day seminar designed to give teachers from K to 12 updated information and ready-to-use resources to increase their awareness on multilingualism in the American classroom.

Registration is $ 20
Includes lunch and materials
